[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., October 15.—Dry and warm weather has some disadvantages. No rain has failen since September 29th. In the eastern section it is injuring truckers seriously. In all this section it has put a stop to ploughing. The ground is baked hard, and many streams are very low. In Cape Fear river the water is at such a low stage that the steamers cannot get to Fayetteville.

Stopped the car just as it was about to be moved from the depôt. The Geem furnace, at Milnes, is now in good working order, and is turning out a large quantity of iron every week. In a recent letter to the Bispatch mention was made of a damage-suit then being tried in the Circuit Court brought by Philip Koontz and wife against the Iron Company. The case resulted in a virtual victory for the company, as the Jury allowed the plaintiffs only $70 damages. The amount claimed was $4,000.

News received here indicates much more splitting of the negro vote than was thought probable a month ago. The negroes are on some matters greatly divided. More negro votes will be east for the Democrats than were east two years ago.

Senator Rensom spoke here this evening at the Metropolitan Hall to a large audience, composed of both parties and colors. His speeches are always able and do good work.

The Masons have, through Grand-Master Busbee, chosen Eugene S. Mr. Martin has accepted. Already the Masons are actively preparing for the celebration. It will attract an im-

News was received here to-day from the engineer of the Paimetto road, which extends from Hamlet, N. C., to Cheraw, S. C., that it would be completed in two weeks. Cars will then run from Norfolk, to Cheraw, or rather to Florence without change. All arrangements are perfected for this.

Yesterday at noon the Grand Command-ery of Knights Templars of North Cirolina adjourned, after two days' session at Wil-son. It was the sixth annual conclave, Right-Eminent-Grand-Commander D. W. Snakenburg. There are now seven commanderies in the State, and application for another (at Winston) will be granted. The annual address, by D. W. Bain, was in admirably-good taste. Wednesday evening Mount Lebanon Commandery entertained the visiting Knights in very handsome style. GIGANTIC REMAINS UNEARTHED.

No sooner is one Independent knocked down or soothed into quiet than another bobs up serenely, or otherwise, to keep the ranks of the disaffected as full as possible. The result is that in few counties are there as lew two tickets-Denocratic and Republicans. Generally the Labor element, or the Anti-County-Government party, or the "Dissatisfied-Democratic" gang, or the Prohibition party, or the People's party, take a hand and makes the political campaign quite a variegated affair. In the campaign quite a variegated affair. In the last Legislature, and in a good many pre-ceding ones, Germain Bernard was quite prominent as a sterling Democrat. He is from Pitt county. Yesterday he announced bimself as an Independent candidate for the Senate against Williams, the regular Democratic nominee. Bernard's action is inexplicable. In this State nowadays a man who poses as an Independent is at once put down as a Republican or an ally of the Republicans. It is a pretty good estimate of their position, too. Bernard's case is only one of fully a hundred in the State.

About thirty miles of new steel rail has been laid, and the debt is only able. About thirty miles of new steel rail has been laid, and the debt is only $300,000. Practically, the road is not in debt at all. Governer Scales thinks the State has given up some very valuable lines for a small consideration, or none at all, and he says frankly that he intends that as long as he controls affairs the Atlantic and North Carolina road shall not be disposed of. He looks forward to the time when, with the North Carolina road, it will form a grand line—an artery through the State of lines owned entirely by the State.

VERY INTERESTING FISH CASE IN COURT.

Prosecution Against City Officials and Others for Viciation of an Ordinance-Sudden Death-Politics.

Correspondence of the Richmond Disputch |

Correspondence of the Richmond Disputch I
OCTOBER 15, 1886.

Warrants were vesterday issued against Messrs. Theo. Crowder, T. A. Palmer, W. L. Vaughan, Michael Heelam, and two of Mr. Heelan's sons, charged with violating a section of the city ordinance prohibiting, under penalty, any fishing in the park lakes. It was alleged against the porties above hamed that on the night of October 5th they had drawn a seine in the lake at West-End Park, which was known to be stocked with fine fish. It had been run.ored about the city for several days that parties had drawn the lake with a seine, and when the fact became known that arrests of the supposed guilty parties were to be made a great deal of interest was aroused and comment was increased by the fact that two of the gentlemen suspected are city officials. Mr. Theo. Crowder is a member of the Common Council, and Mr. Michael Heelan is superintendent of the almshouse. The parties all appeared in the Mayor's Court this morning to answer a civil prosecution, and were represented by W. R. McKenney, Esq., as counsel. Witnesses for the prosecution testified that they were at the park on the night in question; that they saw a number of gentlemen around the edges of the lake, where a selne was drawn, and that they recognized Mr. Palmer and Mr. Heelan and his sons among the party. They old not know Mr. Crowder and Mr. Vaughan, and did not recognize them as being present.

Each one of the defendants was sworn Each one of the defendants was sworn and placed upon the witness-stand, and each one declared most earnestly and positively that he was not in the park on the might in question and that he had done no fishing of any kind there. Counsel for the defendants argued for their acquittal, urging that they are men of respectability and standing in the community—two of them eity officials—and that to pronounce them guilty after their solemn assertions of innocence would be to declare them guilty also of perjury. The Mayor discharged a'so of perjury. The Mayor discharged Messrs, Crowder and Vaughan, because the witnesses had failed to identify them and there was no evidence to show the were present, but he imposed a fine of $10 each on the other parties.
